BACHELOR OF ARTS IN WOMEN’S AND GENDER STUDIES

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The fully online Bachelor of Arts in Women’s and Gender Studies (WGS) is an interdisciplinary study of women and gender in cross-cultural and historical perspectives. You’ll explore how women’s lives have been shaped by history, culture, nationality, class and other elements of diversity. The courses in the program are coordinated through FIU’s Center for Women’s and Gender Studies, founded in 1982, and one of the oldest such scholarly centers in the country. Students have the opportunity to conduct research with faculty on issues related to women and gender.

The Women’s and Gender Studies major explores sex-based bias throughout society—in the workplace, in school, and at home. You’ll hone your analytical, critical thinking and writing skills and become engaged with issues of social change, activism and citizenship. The program is interdisciplinary, and students may select courses from a variety of disciplines, giving you the flexibility to create a program that best reflects your interest and goals.
